ket instead of a pine box. Neither life or property were safe while James was alive. He died almost in the act of robbery and murder. The very next day he was to have robbed a bank, and, as customary, murder the officials. Could you expect the state of Missouri to have a good reputation abroad? Could you expect immigration with such a gang of robbers and murderers ruling our state? The leads is dead, and the gang is broken up. Can you expect to stand any better abroad if you weep and wail over such a grand and glorious result? We say, No! Away with such sentimentalism and gush! Even the ten-cent glamour of the bandit chief vanished like a snowball before a prairie fire when it was found that "horse-thief" was added to other crimes. Hang the banners on the outer wall.
